

International Student application for admission

PROCEDURES

PLEASE submit the following to be considered for admission to Western Carolina University as an international student:

1. The Western Carolina University application for international students.
2. An application fee of $40.00. (U.S. currency)
3. An official copy of academic records from secondary schools. This should include a record of courses taken and grades received, graduation date, and diploma or certificates received, if applicable. An official copy is one sent directly from the school to the Office of Admissions. When original academic credentials are not in English, certified English translations must be provided in addition to the original document.
4. An official copy of academic records from post-secondary institutions (colleges or universities) attended, and descriptions of courses taken (photocopy from catalog pages is acceptable). The same requirements for records apply as stated in #3 above. ALL post-secondary records must be submitted to World Education Services for review.
