PRESENTS:

25th ANNUAL TUCKASEEGEE RIVER CLEAN UP

APRIL 18, 2009

COST: FREE

WHEN AND WHERE TO MEET: Participants will meet at the UC lawn at 11am for a fun filled day of cleaning the river. We will provide transportation to and from the river.

WHAT TO BRING: You will be rafting or walking the banks of the river and picking up trash, so wear comfortable clothes that you can get wet and dirty. Every participant is required to wear shoes that will not come off during a swim. In other words no flip flops or shower sandals.

WHAT TO EXPECT: The University Center will provide the participants with a paddle, personal flotation device and a river talk for the section of the river that you will be floating down. While on the river, every participant is required to wear the provided P.F.D. It is important and imperative that you take an active role in getting your raft or canoe down the river. After a fun afternoon of doing a good deed we will transport you back to Cullowhee for the cookout located on the UC lawn, starting at 5:00 PM. At this time we will give away the door prizes for the day. The minimum weight to raft the Tuckasegee is 40 lbs. There is an alternative walker's route for those not meeting the requirements or anyone who would prefer to not be on the river.

NOTICE: You are responsible for keeping up with your own equipment and any equipment assigned to you by the Base Camp Cullowhee/University Center instructors or guides. You must immediately report medical problems to your guide, whether they are existing physical conditions or safety considerations. With most outdoor activities, serious and fatal injuries can occur. However, the most common injuries are bumps, scrapes and bruises. We take all precautions and with your help we can minimize these risks. Please remember that you are accepting responsibility for your participation in this activity. Base Camp Cullowhee/University Center also reserves the right to change times and prices at any time.
