The 1st annual Women’s Leadership Conference at Western Carolina University will take place Friday, March 27, 2015 and Saturday, March 28, 2015 in the A.K. Hinds University Center. Students, staff, faculty, alumni, and community members of all genders and backgrounds are invited to attend. The conference will provide participants the opportunity to build and engage a strong female community in Western North Carolina, challenge gender roles, and empower/encourage leadership and activism in women’s (and the intersections within) issues. Further, the Women’s Leadership Conference at Western Carolina University will include breakout sessions, panels, mealtime activities, and a networking session. As a note, this conference will be a business casual event. The conference is open to all students, faculty and staff, and members of the community.

Conference fees:
WCU students (w/ Cat Card) – Free ☐ WCU faculty and staff - $10 ☐
Students from other college/universities (w/student ID) - $10 ☐ WCU alumni and community members - $25 ☐
