COLLEGE OF ARTS AND SCIENCES

POLITICAL SCIENCE AND PUBLIC AFFAIRS DEPARTMENT

INTERNATIONAL STUDIES, B.A.

DEGREE PROGRAM STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES

Students will:

- Integrate information from a variety of contexts and disciplines.
- Develop comprehensive knowledge regarding one or more global or regional challenges.
- Demonstrate basic (four semester) proficiency in a foreign language.
- Demonstrate competency in articulating a research question and executing a research project.
- Evaluate career and post-graduate opportunities available to International Studies majors.
- Develop cultural intelligence, or the ability to appreciate the complexities and responsibilities of participation in a diverse and multilingual global society.
- Develop an understanding of the importance of civic engagement.