2015-2016 Guidelines for Post-Tenure Review.

Section 4.08 of 2014-2015 Faculty Handbook is applicable for Post-Tenure Review for the 2015-2016 Academic Year. The 2015-2016 Academic Year is a transition year as new UNC-General Administration policy on PTR (Policy 400.3.3 Performance Review of Tenured Faculty) is implemented on campus.

4.08 Post-Tenure Review (From the 2014-2015 Faculty Handbook)

A. Introduction

Post-tenure review (PTR) is a comprehensive, formal, periodic evaluation of all tenured faculty. The purpose of this review is to support continuing faculty development, to promote faculty vitality, and to encourage excellence among tenured faculty. This is achieved by recognizing and rewarding faculty performance, offering suggestions to enhance performance, providing a clear plan and timetable for improvement of faculty members whose performance is found less than satisfactory, and providing for the imposition of appropriate sanctions for those whose performance remains deficient. Post-tenure review shall be consistent with the University of North Carolina Board of Governors’ policy of giving teaching primary consideration.

B. Faculty to Be Reviewed

PTR is required of all tenured faculty whose primary responsibilities (50% or more) involve teaching, scholarship, and/or service. If faculty responsibilities are primarily only to one or two of these areas, post-tenure review and resulting recommendations should take this allocation of responsibilities into account.

C. Timetable

A tenured faculty member may elect to undergo PTR during any academic year. Faculty for whom PTR is required must undergo a review no later than the fifth academic year following the most recent of any of the following review events: award of tenure or promotion at Western Carolina University, prior post-tenure review, or return to faculty status following administrative service. Candidates who are denied promotion in the required PTR year must submit PTR materials no later than the following academic year. Exceptions shall be made in the following cases: 1) when on leave from duties, that period shall not be included as part of the five years between mandatory review events and/or 2) when temporarily assigned to duties away from Cullowhee/Asheville during the period of a required review, PTR occurs upon return. In the event of serious illness, childbirth or other compelling reasons, the PTR timetable may be extended by the Provost (see APR 4 at http://www.wcu.edu/about-wcu/leadership/office-of-the-provost/resources-for-faculty-and-staff/academic-procedures-and-regulations/index.asp).

D. Materials to Be Submitted for Review

At a minimum, a faculty member being reviewed will provide a current curriculum vitae (CV) and the four most recent annual faculty evaluation summary statements from the department head. Departments may require a faculty member to add additional materials as directed by Departmental Collegial Review documents.

E. Procedures

Performance to be reviewed is limited to the five years preceding review or to the period subsequent to the prior review event, whichever is less.

The tenured faculty of each department shall establish a procedure for post-tenure review. These procedures must be approved by the dean of the college and the Provost. Each department establishes a PTR committee (approved by the departmental faculty) with at least three tenured departmental colleagues, excluding the department head. Whenever a department finds it impossible to form a committee containing at least three tenured faculty, the matter will be referred to the Provost. The Provost, with the approval of the tenured faculty of the department and the dean of the college, will, by selecting tenured faculty from similar departments, constitute a committee of three tenured faculty for the department. Faculty members being reviewed are not permitted to select a member of the committee. However, this does not preclude such faculty members from voting on committee membership along with their colleagues.

Peer reviewers shall present their written evaluations to the department head. The department head shall provide a copy of this evaluation to the faculty member and shall meet with the faculty member to discuss the review. The department head shall then append his/her evaluation relative to the mission of the University, college/school/library, and program. The faculty member then has the option of attaching a written response. In the library the role of the department head will be performed by the University Librarian. When a department head is reviewed, the dean shall perform the roles ordinarily performed by the department head.

F. Criteria

Criteria for acceptable faculty performance include professional competence, conscientious execution of duties—taking into account distribution of workload as developed by the department head—and efforts to improve performance. Exemplary faculty performance, as determined by the department, involves sustained excellence in teaching, scholarship, and service.

G. Outcomes

Post-tenure review outcomes, including a faculty member’s response to a negative decision, in an academic unit must be reviewed by the Dean. The Dean’s review, along with the Department’s decision will be sent to the Provost for information.

In the case of a satisfactory decision, results are documented for university award and merit pay decisions. In addition, suggestions to enhance performance may be provided.

PTR Guidelines for 2015-2016
In the case of an unsatisfactory decision, the department head, in consultation with the faculty member, PTR committee, and dean of the faculty member's college, will create a three-year development plan within one month of the review. The plan shall include (1) a statement of the faculty member’s primary responsibilities and specific descriptions of shortcomings as they relate to the faculty member’s assigned duties; (2) specific improvements to be accomplished within three years, (3) resources to be committed to the improvement efforts, and (4) other support provided by the administration. If duties are modified as a result of a less than satisfactory rating, then the development plan should so indicate and take into account the new allocation of responsibilities. The department head and PTR committee will monitor the faculty member’s progress relative to the development plan and provide verbal and written feedback to the faculty member semi-annually. The development plan and the written feedback are to be copied to the Dean and the Provost. In the event of serious illness, childbirth or other compelling reasons, the PTR development period may be extended by the Provost through a university process established, in consultation with and endorsed by the Faculty Senate, and approved by the Chancellor.

The plan shall also include a clear statement of consequences should adequate progress not occur by the end of the third year. The consequences may range from suspension of pay raises to, in the most extreme cases, reduction in rank, temporary suspension of employment, or termination of employment.

H. Appeals

The Faculty Post-Tenure Review Appeals Committee shall consider problems and appeals that arise from PTR.

I. Due Process

"A faculty member, who is the beneficiary of institutional guarantees of tenure, shall enjoy protection against unjust and arbitrary application of disciplinary penalties. During the period of such guarantees the faculty member may be discharged from employment, suspended, or demoted in rank only for reasons of incompetence, neglect of duty or misconduct of such a nature as to indicate that an individual is unfit to continue as a member of the faculty" (Code of the University of North Carolina, Chapter VI, Section 603). Disciplinary actions for noncompliance with the development plan are limited to those established in Chapter VI of the Code of the University of North Carolina. Due process and the right of appeal as specified in the Code of the University of North Carolina and the "Tenure Policies and Regulations of Western Carolina University" in the Faculty Handbook shall be guaranteed.
