I. Item Title: Policy on Non-Degree Seeking Students
   a) Brief Description: This classification may be used only by individuals who do not plan to receive degrees at Western Carolina University. Non-degree applications are accepted on a space available basis. Applicants who are not accepted as degree-seeking first-year or graduate students are not eligible for non-degree status. Non-degree students may complete a maximum of 18 hours. Because this classification is designed for students taking courses purely for their edification, academic advisors are not assigned. Students who wish to complete more than 18 hours as a non-degree seeking student must obtain special permission by the Dean of the Graduate School or Director of Undergraduate Admissions and Transition.

Non-Degree Seeking Students

This classification may be used only by individuals who do not plan to receive degrees at Western Carolina University. Non-degree applications are accepted on a space available basis. Applicants who are not accepted as degree-seeking first-year or graduate students are not eligible for non-degree status.

Non-degree students may complete a maximum of 18 undergraduate hours or 12 graduate hours. Because this classification is designed for students taking courses purely for their edification, academic advisors are not assigned.

Students who wish to complete more than 18 undergraduate hours or 12 graduate hours as a non-degree seeking student must obtain special permission by the Dean of the Graduate School or Director of Undergraduate Admissions and Transition.
