Western Carolina University Presents:
Sponsored by: CSL, Residential Living, & Aramark

Hunger & Homelessness Awareness Week Nov. 17-21

"On a single night in January 2013, there were 610,042 people experiencing homelessness in the United States and in WNC there are currently 38,420 children living food insecure." - Manna

Awareness can make a difference

“One child, one teacher, one book, and one pen can change the world.”

-Nobel Prize winner Malala Yousafzai

Events and Dates:

*Everything Drive 17-21
Students will have the opportunity to donate canned goods and toiletries to our food recovery program; max of 15 points toward the Lily Points.

*Kickoff Nov. 17th @ 6pm, Reid Gym

*Live Below the Line Nov. 17-21: (Ending) Nov. 21st @ 3pm, Belk 210
This event brings aware to world hunger and poverty by allowing individuals to experience the struggle of living on a $1.25 a day.

*Hunger Games: Dodgeball Nov. 17 @ 6:30pm, Reid Gym
Student will have the opportunity to learn about social injustice while enjoying a game of dodgeball.

*Hunger Banquet Nov. 19 @ 5:30pm, Blue Ridge
A food banquet that allows individuals to see and experience the different social classes throughout the world.

*Food Talk Nov. 21 @ 3pm, WALC Conference Room (Belk 210)
Students will have the opportunity to challenge their preconceived notions about food, while gaining a different perspective on food.

Fill-the-Bag donation is required for each event, which will be counted toward the “Everything Drive” for Lily Points.

All donors and participants will receive Lily Points!

To receive more information about the Hunger & Homelessness Awareness Week or to get involved, please contact: Willie Jones, AmeriCorps VISTA at wajones@wcu.edu or at 828.227.2592
Center for Service Learning, Belk 273