

NATIONAL HUNGER & HOMELESSNESS AWARENESS WEEK

November 15-21

ALL EVENTS ARE FREE, AND OPEN TO THE PUBLIC. *

Monday, November 16, 1-3:30 p.m. & 3:30-6:30 p.m.

The Community Table, Sylva, NC

Staff members of the WCU Office for Undergraduate Studies will prepare and serve meals at The Community Table. Student volunteers are needed for the same times on Tuesday, Thursday and Friday (17th, 19th and 20th). Give back to the community by signing up today!!!

Monday, November 16, 8-10:30 p.m.

Film: The Pursuit of Happyness, U.C. Theater

Join Amy McClure, Executive Director of the Community Table, for this 2006 film starring Will Smith. Inspired by a true story, Smith plays Chris Gardner who is afflicted by financial difficulty and, along with his son, is faced with hunger and homelessness. McClure will give a brief intermission followed by discussion.

Thursday, November 19, 12:30-1:50 p.m.

Special Social Work Presentation, U.C. Theater

Join Jeanne Naber, Coordinator for Haywood County Meals on Wheels, for a brief presentation and discussion on social issues related to hunger and homelessness.

Friday, November 20, 6-8 p.m.

Potluck Meal with Brass Quintet, Cullowhee Methodist Church

Join us for free food and musical entertainment at the Cullowhee Methodist Church on campus, next to BB&T and Albright-Benton Residence Hall. The event will feature speakers and testimonials; hosted by The Wesley Foundation. Bringing food is not required.

*Film attendees must be WCU Faculty, Staff or Students