What is Ladder Golf?

Ladder golf is a ‘tailgate-type’ game. Like Cornhole or Horseshoes, in Ladder Golf you throw “bolas” (2 golf balls attached by a rope spaced roughly a foot apart) at a ladder-like structure.

General Rules

- Catcards are required. NO I.D. = NO PLAY! No exceptions!
- Ladder Golf is played in rounds, each round consists of all four players tossing 3 bolas. Teams alternate who tosses first in each round.
- Team scoring the higher in the round goes first in the next round
- The first player must toss all 3 bolas before the next player is able to toss his or her bolas. Bolas can be tossed in anyway the player chooses, as long as they are tossed individually
- Scoring
  - Only bolas that are left hanging after all bolas are tossed are counted
  - Players can knock off bolas in the coarse of the round
  - Points are determined by which ladder step your bola wraps around. The top step is worth 3 points the middle step is worth 2 points and the bottom step is only worth 1 point
  - Cover will be played
  - Bolas can not bounce off the ground
  - Games are played to an exact point total of 21. If a player/team goes over the exact point total, that teams points for that round do not count and they start the next round with their previous point total.
  - In the case of a tie, one overtime round will be played and which ever team ahead of end of round is the winner

Conduct

The Intramural Sports programs promote positive sportsmanship at all contests and activities. Unsportsmanlike conduct includes actions, which are unbecoming to an ethical, fair, and honorable individual. It consists of acts of deceit, disrespect, or vulgarity and includes taunting.
