Welcome to WCU!

Welcome to the Inter-Regional Council Summer Institute 2016

Staying on Campus
You will be staying Madison Conference Center

It is likely that you will be sharing a residence hall with another group or conference. We ask all groups to be courteous and observe “quiet times” between 11pm and 7am. Most participants adapt well to campus life, however there may be occasions where the behavior of an individual may adversely affect the conference or camp experience of others. In such rare instances, WCU reserves the right to remove a participant from any program without refunding costs.

Campus Dining
You are provided with a dining cards in your packet. This cards will be used in Courtyard Dining Hall for most meals. Be sure to check your schedule for the meal times

Staying in Touch

Campus Rules & Regulations
Alcohol may be possessed and consumed only by those at least 21 years old and only within an individual’s room. Public display and consumption of alcohol is prohibited by university regulations. Possession of illegal drugs will result in immediate dismissal and will be reported to University Police.

If you are bothered by uninvited guests, please contact the conference staff or University Police.

Public areas such as lounges, recreation areas, laundry rooms, etc. are shared by residents of several halls and are not to be used for meetings, parties, etc., unless scheduled in advance. Proper attire must always be worn in these public areas.

If you have questions about your stay, you can email those to Dr. Susan Fouts:  sfouts@wcu.edu
