Jobs & Internships

- Job position – Sales Reporting Analyst, Red Hat (Raleigh, NC). The Red Hat Sales Reporting & Analysis team is looking for an energetic and enthusiastic personality to perform sales analysis in support of Red Hat's Executive team. You will be responsible for liaising with managers and executives to compile detailed booking forecasts, sales metrics, and economic models. For a complete job posting and how to apply, visit <https://careers.redhat.com/ext/detail?redhat8080>.

- Internship – Marketing, Diamond Brand Outdoors. Get a taste for all aspects of marketing in this paid internship experience (15-25 hrs/wk, flexible; $8/hr). Preferred skills include: excellent computer skills (experience with MS Excel, PowerPoint and Word; Photoshop and other Adobe design suite skills a plus), good analytical skills, ability to pay close attention to detail, good organization skills, ability to take ownership of one's work, and good written and verbal communication skills. Experience with web marketing and social media is also a plus. To date, Diamond Brand has hired 1 out of 3 MBA interns for full time positions after graduation! Email resumes to Sarah Merrell at smerrell@diamondbrand.com.

Opportunities

- Graduate Research Symposium - March 22 on the WCU main campus. Use this opportunity to present research you are doing in class or as a graduate student, and positively represent the MBA and CoB in the process! Register via <http://www.wcu.edu/1149.asp> and see an informative video on abstract writing and paper presentation on the same Web page!

Student & Alumni Announcements

- New job! Congrats to Amanda Sorrells, MBA 2011, who will begin her post-graduation position in January as the Entrepreneurship Counselor for the Youth and Young Adult Initiative at the NC Rural Economic Development Center in Raleigh. We're excited for you, Amanda!
