Waiving health insurance on your bill. If you have health insurance through your parents, your spouse, work, or an individually purchased plan, you can waive the $688 fee from your student bill. Visit http://www.wcu.edu/student-life/division-of-student-affairs/departments/student-health-services/student-health-insurance/how-to-waive.asp. You can even do this from your smartphone! You can select to automatically input your waiver information for the spring semester, but you will need to renew your information each fall for the academic year. If you take no action, you will automatically be enrolled in the student health plan through Blue Cross Blue Shield August 1.
