JOB! Permit Facilitator – City of Asheville. An employee in this class is responsible for ensuring compliance with specific and or pertinent state and local regulatory requirements prior to the “approved right to commence or occupy” a residential or commercial construction project. Job duties include extensive public contact for gathering of a variety of information and data relating to permitting matters. Work involves reviewing and answering questions regarding applications for permits, plans and specifications for proposed construction and renovation projects. Employee must exercise tact and courtesy in frequent contact with department personnel, property owners, developers, and the general public. Errors or mistakes made by the Permit Facilitator may result in costly changes to the owner or contractor, and may necessitate the need to stop work, thereby causing delays to the project which can result in poor public relations and legal liabilities to the City. Employee primarily works independently of direct supervision. Work is performed and evaluated in terms of the efficiency and effectiveness of performance under the coordination of the Senior Permit Facilitator with general supervision by the division manager. Approximately 19 hours per week for 6-18 mos (part-time, temporary). $13.81/hr.
