

Courses Offered in Spring 2011:

Anth 379/Art 379 – Cherokee Arts & Crafts (crosslisted) (elective)

(10055/11870 – T 5:00-8:00pm)

Present day Cherokee skills of woodcarving, basketry, pottery making, and other arts of Cherokee culture and society.

ANTH 441/541 – Archaeological Problems and Analyses (elective)

(12489/12490 – MW 5:45-700pm)

Experience in collecting and analyzing relevant archaeological data. PREQ: Permission of instructor

CHER 132 – Elementary Cherokee II (required)

(12142 – MW 2:30-3:45)

Continued audio-lingual practice of basic imperatives, idioms on the imperative stem, verbs of motion and locationals, and basic complement types. PREQ: 101

CHER 232 – Intermediate Cherokee II (elective)

(12150 – MW 4:00-5:15)

Readings and discussions on Cherokee culture; emphasis on pre-removal culture and its traces in language and readings in specialized areas. PREQ: 231

CHER 351 – Phonetics and General Linguistics (elective)

(12153 – TR 9:30-10:45)

Introduction to linguistics; the Cherokee sound system from a phonetic and allophonic view; grammatical categories, morphology, syntax. PREQ: Permission of instructor.

HIST 175 – Native American Civilization (elective)

(10980 – TR 11:00-12:15)

Introduction to Native American history.

NAS 471 – Indigenous & Western Psychologies (elective)

(offered: online (471-01= 10084), (471-50=10085))

Introduction to the history and current use of psychological models of self and community in a cross-cultural perspective; explores American Indian cultures and European-based psychological theories.

NAS 571- Indigenous & Western Psychologies (elective)

(offered: online ( 571-01= 10086), (571-50= 10087))

NAS 452 – Roots of Health Disparities in Native American Populations (elective)

(offered: online (452-01=10080), (452-50= 10081))

Introduction to the current debate and literature on the connection between genetic and environmental factors which must be considered in approaching contemporary health issues in Indian country.

NAS 552– Roots of Health Disparities in Native American Populations (elective)

(offered: online (552-01=10082), (552-50= 10083))