

WELCOME TO WCU!

Staying on Campus

Staying on a university campus offers a fantastic value over the high cost of hotels. However, dorm living can be a surprise to the “uninitiated”.

The rooms are basic but clean and comfortable. A typical residence hall room is furnished with a twin-sized bed, a desk and a chair. Unless you are notified otherwise, rooms will have a basic linen pack containing a blanket, 1 pillow, 2 sheets, 2 towels, and 2 wash clothes. Week long stays will have a larger packet containing additional towels and washcloths.

We recommend bringing the following with you to campus:

- extra towels and wash clothes
- clothes hangers
- soap, shampoo and other toiletries
- an UMBRELLA
- an alarm clock
- a small bedside lamp (optional)
- an XL twin sized mattress pad (opt)
- a small personal cooler for ice and bottled water

It is likely that you will be sharing a residence hall with another group or conference. We ask all groups to be courteous and observe “quiet times” between 11pm and 7am. Most participants adapt well to campus life, however there may be occasions where the behavior of an individual may adversely affect the conference or camp experience of others. In such rare instances, WCU reserves the right to remove a participant from any program without refunding costs.

Parking

There is ample parking around the Residence halls. Please do not park in yellow-lined spaces as these are reserved for staff. A conference parking pass is available in your welcome folder or from Educational Outreach or University Police.

Campus Dining

Unless specifically catered, all meals will be served in new Courtyard Dining Hall. The cafeteria offers various buffet stations with an abundant variety of entrees, fruits, and salads. Conference or camp attendees who are staying on campus will be participating in a meal plan. This means that you will check-in, you will be given a meal card (which looks similar to a credit card) to use at all meals.

Cafeteria hours are: 7am – 9am for Breakfast , 11am – 1pm for Lunch & 5:00pm – 7:30pm for Dinner
Commuters may eat in the cafeteria by paying cash.
