Dear Parent/Guardian

IN A MILLION WORDS OR LESS . . . TELL ME ABOUT YOUR SCHOLAR!

Yes, you are getting a homework assignment! It takes me a great deal of time to know your child. Some I never really know. This activity gives you a chance to tell me what you think I should know about your scholar. I will read every one of them. I will not share your comments with any other person, including other teachers, unless you tell me in your message that I can.

Your scholar is in for a great experience this semester. The curriculum is rigorous, but very doable. I teach from a thematic approach and expect my students to read, write, think, work in groups, work independently, and be creative. Most importantly, I want students to make connections between what we read and study and real life -- especially their lives. This should be a very exciting and busy semester.

Take your time with this, but there must be a deadline. Please send In a Million Words or Less . . . to me no later than _______. You can either send it with your scholar or email it to me. You can find my email address below. This will be an extra credit grade!

Communication is important! Please feel free to call on me, email me, or visit any time you have questions or concerns. My planning period is ____ from ____ to ____. Call the school to set up an appointment or you can read me at ______________________.

I appreciate your time and effort.

Sincerely,
