Pritchett selected for UP program

CULLOWHEE — Elizabeth Pritchett has been selected to participate in the University Participant program at Western Carolina University this fall.

The UP program was designed for young adults with developmental disabilities to experience university life and learning. The program provides a two-year, on-campus living and learning experience for students age 18-25. Selected participants get $6,500 per year for tuition support.

For more, contact Kelly Kelley at kellyrkelley@gmail.com.