

Will they realize their full potential?

You can help!

Earn AIG (Academically or Intellectually Gifted) licensure online through WCU.

Courses offered at both undergraduate and graduate levels. Graduate level courses can be applied to MAEd in gifted education.

*Summer 2009 • June 22-26

SPED 400 and 500 (includes one week of onsite field experience)
Creative Thinking and Problem Solving

Summer 2009

SPED 577 Curriculum Differentiation for Gifted Learners

Fall 2009

SPED 475 and 575 Methods and Models of Gifted Education

Spring 2010

SPED 471 and 571 Introduction to Gifted Education
SPED 477 Curriculum Differentiation for Gifted Learners

"This has been the best higher learning experience I have ever had. I LOVE the online class experience and would say that it is at least as (and maybe more) rigorous than face-to-face instruction."

-- Course Feedback, 2008

"I have learned so much! I am able to use what I have learned to impact my classroom and the shape of the AIG program at my school." - Course Feedback, 2008

For admission, visit <http://www.wcu.edu/8106.asp>

* Summer, 1st Session: May 11 - June 3

 Summer, 2nd Session: June 29 - August 21

Western Carolina
UNIVERSITY