

As a state university, Western Carolina University receives taxpayer support and is able to provide residents access to a university education for remarkably reasonable tuition.

We encourage you to investigate scholarship opportunities that may be available to you. We have put together this resource to get you started, but you should also check other sources. Also, you should check independently for current dates and requirements for any scholarship for which you might apply.

Deadlines vary: check them NOW so you can plan ahead.

Warning: Some so-called scholarship search websites charge a fee for their service. We encourage you not to pay for any such services but to use the many free resources available to you to locate scholarship opportunities.

There is a US scholarships resource at <http://www.fastweb.com/>

The U.S. News & World Report Scholarship Research Center allows you to customize your search of scholarships and loans available based on the criteria you select. The site tries to keep the database current and is a good way to find scholarships you might have otherwise missed.

The College Board Fund Finder and the Scholarship Resource Network Express are both free databases with hundreds of thousands of awards. The databases are updated annually.
