2014 WNC Board of Adjustment Workshop

Friday, April 11, 2014
NC Arboretum Auditorium, Asheville, NC
9:15 a.m. to 3:45 p.m. (on-site check-in opens at 8:45 a.m.)

The Western Regional Office of the N.C. Division of Community Assistance (DCA) is offering a workshop for new Board of Adjustment (BOA) members or those who want a refresher on procedures. Program sessions will be led by DCA planners and by UNC School of Government faculty. (Note: the hearing simulation will use the same script as last year.)

Topics include:
- Board of Adjustment basics and board functions,
- Types of cases and standards for review,
- A brief review of changes made to the statutes in 2013 that affect Boards of Adjustment,
- Quasi-judicial hearing procedures and how to conduct a variance hearing (a simulation),
- Legal issues and resources for Boards of Adjustment.

The workshop is co-sponsored by the Local Government Training Program in the Department of Political Science & Public Affairs at Western Carolina University.

A registration fee of $25 covers the cost of materials, lunch, and breaks.

Registration ends Friday, April 4 (or when the class reaches capacity).

To register for the program, please visit our online registration link.

To register more than one person:
Please do not change the number “1” in quantity box at the online registration site.

If you wish to register another individual or a group of people, you will be given the opportunity to do so before final check-out.

After you have entered all your registrations, the quantity box will show the total number registered and the charge for that number.

Once submitted, you will receive a confirmation by email. If you do not receive an email confirmation, please call 828-227-3066.
