Wednesday, February 10, 2016
1:00-1:53 pm
University Center, Rogers Room
Voting Committee Attendees: Zack Waldroup, Cole Sutton, and Monica Suarez
Non-Voting Committee Attendees: Lauren Bishop, Emily Ranson, Andy Coburn, Jackson Chastain

• 1:05- Meeting begins
• 1:07- Emily brought up that there were still no applications on orgsync o Should continue to focus on generating public awareness and talking to other students in our classes o Zack brought up the point that we can obtain master schedules from our department head so that we can let people know about SEI applications in more classes
  o We will all share the responsibility of treasurer until the position can be filled at a later date
• 1:11- Banner suggestions
  o We agreed that we really like Monica’s version of the banner and plan to move forward with that design
• 1:14- Project (EGG) construction o The pouring of the concrete will begin as soon as the temperature reaches 40 degrees o Planning to take a time lapse video from the roof as a means of promotion of the project and SEI o It’s possible that this could be the first project of this kind on a campus
  o Still on track to have the project (EGG) completed by Earth day • 1:18- Nature based sculpture project o It’s aiming to be more interactive and less plop art o Found a national award winning group of four artists to help complete the project

Minutes Completed by: Cole Sutton
• 1:20-by-laws
  o Emily will take advantage of the mini-break coming up next week to work on the SEI by-laws
• 1:27-SEI facebook page o Continue to promote the facebook page to raise awareness as Monica continues to update the page o Everyone will like and share the facebook page as well
  o Emily brought up the idea that we should all have personal profiles on facebook to let everyone know what we do for SEI
• 1:45- What makes us appealing to students?
  o We are student run o This committee has a lot of responsibility o This committee is very unique o What we are doing is very important
    • Monica brought up the point that we could possibly do videos explaining what we do on facebook instead as well as explain why this committee is important
• 1:53- Meeting adjourned
