

Write your name in the center block. In each of the four solid line blocks, write a category of people – friends, professors, etc. In each of the dotted line blocks, write a specific person's name that you could reach out to as part of your network.

