

BODY DONATION CHECKLIST

Thank you for choosing to donate your body to the Western Carolina University Forensic Anthropology Program and Facilities.

Enclosed you will find several forms necessary for body donation. Please complete these forms, sign them, make copies for your records, and mail them to the following address:

Body Donation Program
Department of Anthropology and Sociology
Western Carolina University
Cullowhee, NC 28723

Western Carolina Forensic Anthropology Program and Facilities Donation Policies

This document outlines the body donation acceptance and rejection policies. It also includes information on paperwork, transportation, and cremation. This form should be executed in triplicate. The donor keeps the original copy. One copy should be retained by the Next-of-Kin and one copy should be sent to the address above.

Contract for Bequeathing Body if you are the donating your body OR

Contact for donating decedent's remains if you are donating someone else's remains.

This is a legally binding document allowing you to donate your, or a decedent's body to the Western Carolina University Forensic Anthropology Program and Facilities. This form should be executed in triplicate. The donor keeps the original copy. One copy should be retained by the Next-of-Kin and one copy should be sent to the address above.

Biological Questionnaire

All information is considered confidential. This information assists with ongoing research at the Western Carolina University Forensic Anthropology Program and Facilities. Please complete the form to the best of your ability. You only need to record the information that you are comfortable providing. We ask that any changes to this vital information be reported to us so we can keep our records up to date. This form should be included with the other two and sent to the address above.