Steve Watson serves as the Senior Vice President of Corporate Services and Chief Financial Officer for The Biltmore Company, with responsibilities including overall corporate managerial responsibilities for the accounting, finance, human resources, and information technology departments. Before joining The Biltmore Company, Watson served as vice president of finance and accounting for Revman Industries, a large textile manufacturer and marketing company in Greenville, S.C. During his eleven-year tenure at that company, he also served as controller. His prior experience includes positions as financial analyst with the Bi-Lo Corporation; corporate accounting manager for U.S. Shelter; corporate accounting manager for J.P. Stevens & Co.; and staff accountant for a regional CPA firm.

Watson received his undergraduate degree in accounting from UNC-Charlotte and his MBA from Clemson University. He is a Certified Public Accountant and Certified Management Accountant, and has been instrumental in helping shape the company's financial health as well as being an important partner in setting strategic directions for the company's business growth and development. Additionally, Mr. Watson serves on the Board of Directors for the Financial Executives Institute.
