Do you ...

... still need an upper level elective in BIOLOGY, PAR, or HISTORY?

... love learning outside of the classroom?

Then, this is the class for you!

APPALACHIAN STUDIES SEMINAR (ASI 450)
THE SOUTHERN APPALACHIAN LANDSCAPE

EARN 3 CREDITS IN 2 WEEKS
A HANDS-ON FIELD-BASED LEARNING EXPERIENCE

FIELD TRIPS
Great Smoky Mountain National Park, the Bartram Trail, Fontana Dam, the Nantahala National Forest, the Cherokee Museum, a canoe trip down the Little Tennessee River, and other ecologically and historically interesting places.

INSTRUCTORS
Dr. Beverly Collins, Biology
Dr. Mary Ella Engel, History
Dr. David Henderson, PAR

WHERE
- Highlands Biological Station, about 50 minutes from Western Carolina University
- Students can stay in the dorms at Highlands Biological Station in beautiful Highlands, NC

CREDIT
This course can be used to fulfill an upper-level History, PAR or Biology elective.

See the mountains as you’ve never seen them before!

11–23 MAY 2015
(Monday–Saturday, both weeks)