Dear Non-Profit Vendor,

Western Carolina University's 46th annual Mountain Heritage Day will be held on Saturday, September 26, 2020 from 10am – 5pm!

Mountain Heritage Day is a one-day, free outdoor festival where 14,000+ visitors enjoy multiple stages of live entertainment, over 130 juried arts and crafts booths, unique food, and tons of family-friendly activities celebrating Appalachian mountain culture.

Mountain Heritage Day is a wonderful opportunity to promote your NON-PROFIT ORGANIZATION and message to the Western North Carolina community. If you decide to participate, carefully review the enclosed guidelines and complete the registration form. Application and booth fees are due by September 1, 2020. There are a limited number of non-profit organization booth spaces available; they are assigned on a first-come/first-serve basis, regardless of past involvement. Please discuss this opportunity with your organization as soon as possible and apply early.

If you have any questions regarding the festival, please contact me. Thank you for your interest and cooperation; I look forward to receiving your non-profit organization's application!

Best wishes,

Stacy MacGregor

Application & Booth Fees

- Non-Refundable 15' x 15' Booth Fee (received/postmarked by September 1, 2020) $ 40
- Double space (two booths, very limited availability– must apply by deadline) $ 80

Guidelines:

Your organization and its associates are responsible for following the guidelines. If you fail to comply with the guidelines your organization may be asked to leave the festival, without refund.

- Booth spaces are 15'X15'. Location assignment is determined by the MHDAY Committee after the fee is paid.
- Your organization must supply its own tent, tables, chairs, and display materials. Electricity is NOT available.
- On your application, give a detailed description of the information and/or services you will be providing/doing at your booth, including any items/merchandise you will be selling and/or giving away. You are allowed to sell your fundraising souvenirs, merchandise, memberships, etc. Sales are limited to the items described in your application, thus approved by the MHDAY Committee. Failure to adhere to this policy will result in dismissal from the festival without refund.
- You may share your booth space with another group/organization, as long as it has also applied and is approved.
- No food or drink of any kind may be sold or given away.
- No demonstration, selling, or promotion of arts and crafts – MHDAY is a juried arts and crafts festival.
- No generators or loud sound systems are allowed
- No selling or solicitation outside of assigned booth space
- No pets except service animals
- Your booth must stay open to the public until 5pm. No vehicles will be allowed onto the grounds until 5:30pm or festival management deems it safe
- The festival is held outdoors, rain or shine. There are no refunds due to weather.
- A $30 transaction fee will be charged for any check returned for non-sufficient funds (NSF); application may be disqualified at the discretion of the MHDAY Committee.
- Your signature on the Application Form constitutes an agreement for your organization to be bound by the stated policies – this applies to all of your organization's associates present at MHDAY.
