

Proposed Course Offerings

The following is a 2 year planned course schedule for when core classes and electives are offered. It is intended as a plan to guide students, but could be altered due to new courses, new faculty, or budgets

	Fall Odd	Spring Even	Fall Even	Spring Odd
Core	Public Affairs Administration Public Organization Theory Research Methods Public Personnel Management Capstone	Legal Issues in Public Affairs Public Financial Management Public Policy Analysis Capstone	Research Methods Public Personnel Management Public Affairs Administration Public Organization Theory Capstone	Public Policy Analysis Legal Issues in Public Affairs Public Financial Management Capstone
Electives	State and Local Governance Environmental Politics and Policy	Public Policy Formulation Nonprofit Leadership and Sustainability	Local Government Management	Nonprofit Sector GIS in Public Affairs

Note on Summer: Summer courses are more flexible, but in general, we expect to offer Public Relations for Public and Nonprofit Organizations in odd summers and Grant Writing in even summers. It is also likely that we will offer at least one other graduate-level elective in the summer. Summer is also a good time for students to complete their internship.
