

Psychology Club Constitution

Article I. Name

The name of this organization is the Psychology Club of Western Carolina University (At Western, this club is coupled with Psi Chi, which is a national honor society).

Article II. Purpose

The Psychology Club is an academic club whose purpose is to explore psychology further by providing informational sessions for the university, helping various organizations and getting involved in several community service activities.

Article III. Members

Any undergraduate or graduate with any interest in Psychology is welcome to join the Psychology Club. Naturally, psychology majors and minors are the core of the club, but anyone is welcome. (Psi Chi members have different requirements.)

Article IV. Main Objectives

The Psychology Club has a main focus in aiding the community and raising awareness about various issues important to our members. The club also provides a safe and accepting environment for members to discuss current topics in the field.

Article V. Club Leadership

President – Leadership, Direction, Ideas, Community Service Opportunities

Vice President – Execution of Ideas, Delegation

Secretary – Organization, Minutes, Communication

Treasurer – Handles Money (Budget, Projections, Goals)

Article VI. Election Procedures

Elections will be held at the beginning of the Fall semester. It will be majority vote for each officer. If there is a tie, there will be a revote. If there is still a tie, the choice can either be that there are co-presidents, or the sponsor will choose the officer.

Article VII. Amendment Procedures

If an amendment needs to be made, anyone within the organization may bring up the issue or addition to any one of the officers. From there, the amendment will be discussed at an official meeting, and the changes will be made if more than 50% of the club members believe it should be amended.