RECIPROCITY STATEMENTS (great websites):

*Mississippi - Reciprocity is granted to applicants who possesses a valid standard license from another state in an area in which Mississippi issues an endorsement and meets Mississippi's minimum licensure requirements or equivalent

<https://www.mdek12.org/OEL>

*Pennsylvania along with most states and U.S. territories have signed an Interstate Certification Agreement to recognize current and comparable state-approved programs. Candidates from participating states must still meet other Pennsylvania requirements such as student teaching, GPA and PA testing.

<https://www.education.pa.gov/Educators/Certification/Pages/default.aspx>

*South Carolina - The issuance of a South Carolina educator certification based on a comparable certificate issued by another entity's Department of Education is referred to as reciprocity. Each individual employed in an instructional, classroom teaching position or who serves in a position designed for the support of the instructional program in a public school of this state must hold an appropriate South Carolina teaching credential.

Educator certificates issued by the Department of Education of another state, a United States territory, or the Department of Defense Dependents Schools (DODDS) may be eligible for reciprocity through South Carolina's reciprocity agreement. For additional information on interstate reciprocity, please refer to National Association of State Directors of Teacher Education and Certification (NASDTEC Interstate Agreement).

Because each state has its own policies, guidelines, regulations, and statutes regarding education, the transference of teaching credentials between each is rarely a “one to one” process. The Office of Educator Services evaluates each state’s certificate areas and attempts to grant a South Carolina certificate in as many comparable areas as possible. In addition, evaluators take into consideration South Carolina State Board of Education regulations and statutes that may not have comparable rules in the reciprocal applicant’s state. A listing of current Areas & Endorsements offered in South Carolina is available.
