Small Area Planning: Putting the Pieces Together

Friday, October 11, 2013
WCU Programs at Biltmore Park, Asheville, NC
28 Schenck Parkway, Suite 355, Room 346
9:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. (Registration at 9:00)

The Local Government Training Program in Political Science and Public Affairs at Western Carolina University and the Western Regional Office of the NC Division of Community Assistance (DCA) will offer a one-day program on small area planning.

Small area planning engages citizens personally and interactively, focusing on community needs and issues and resulting in richly detailed plans heavily influenced by the community.

Designed for city and county planners, public managers, citizen planners and others responsible for planning and land use, the program will highlight successful small area plans and practices in North Carolina.

Program speakers include:
- Autumn Radcliff, Senior Planner; Matt Cable, Transportation Planner, Henderson County
  Topic: Henderson County’s Community Planning Initiative
- Lu-Ann Monson, Preservation Planner, City of Wilson, NC
  Topic: The City of Wilson’s Neighborhood Planning Process
- Don Kostelec, Principal, Kostelec Planning, Asheville, NC
  Topic: Small Area Plan Integration: Bringing All the Elements Together

This workshop has been submitted for AICP CM credit (4 hours).
