- SEI Proposal Form Review/ Training Session
 - The purpose of these is to help people feel comfortable with submitting a proposal to the SEI Committee
 - We want to help guide people by treating what they already have written down as a first draft and help them dig deeper by finding holes that need to be filled in their proposals.
 - We will have a more in-depth review session at our next meeting (March 14th).
- Adam and Quentin met with some communications students to help advertise the SEI Committee
- Join a Sustainable Club on Campus Flyer

- Deborah Vlach, the vice president of Eco C.A.T.S., created a flyer differentiating between Eco C.A.T.S. and the SEI Committee
 - Clarify the voting and non-voting member requirements in the by-laws
 - Explain what you want to accomplish and suggest which club to join
- Julianna Prather will begin adding these events to our OrgSync page
- PR team will start using our Twitter more
 - Please forward anything interesting to our PR officers (Quentin and Cece)
