

JAPAN WITH NANAKA

VOLUME 6, MARCH 31, 2022

Monthly Newsletter curated by Nanaka Okamura, a Japan Outreach Initiative (JOI) Coordinator

ひなまつり HINAMATSURI

On March 3, Michigan 4-H members, one former JOI coordinator, and four current JOI coordinators from Oklahoma, Nebraska, North Carolina, and North Dakota held a joint Hinamatsuri event. Participants enjoyed quizzes, origami, songs, and other Hinamatsuri-related events. In May, we plan to jointly organize an event related to Kodomo no Hi.

枝豆チャンプ #EDAMAMECHAMP

The #EdamameChamp event was held at WCU on March 16 and at the Jackson County Public Library on March 19. A total of 20 people participated in the two events, ranging from children to adults. #EdamameChamp is an annual spring campaign by Table for Two to promote healthy eating through Japanese cuisine focusing on soy and to raise funds for teaching healthy eating to more children.

茶道デモンストレーション JAPANESE TEA CEREMONY DEMONSTRATION

On March 21, students from UNC-Chapel Hill's JAPN 418 hosted a tea ceremony demonstration with former WCU's JOI coordinator Ms. Suzuki. Several students from WCU attended and learned about the tea ceremony. Her explanation of the meaning of lifelong learning and Zen words was very interesting. The tea ceremony demonstration was very quiet and beautiful.

書道作品展 JAPANESE CALLIGRAPHY EXHIBITION

On March 22, a reception was held at the Jackson County Public Library for my Japanese Calligraphy exhibition. This exhibition will be on view through the end of April, and I encourage you to visit. I hope you enjoy all 13 works and their respective commentaries.

クラス訪問
CLASS VISIT

On March 23, I visited 2 Two-Dimensional Design classes and taught Japanese Calligraphy. It was the first time for all the students to try Japanese Calligraphy, and they took it very seriously. We learned how to write basic lines and then each student wrote a favorite word in Japanese. I wrote their names in Japanese and was pleased that they liked them so much.

お花見
OHANAMI

On March 25, we enjoyed Sakura (cherry blossom) viewing near Alumni Tower. We played Darumasan ga Koronda (Red light, Green light) in Japanese. The students enjoyed this game very much and played it many times. Since it was very cold that day, we moved to McKee 121 and students enjoyed paper-cutting and drawing.

書道ワークショップ
JAPANESE CALLIGRAPHY WORKSHOP

On March 26, a Japanese Calligraphy workshop was held in the community room of Jackson County Public Library. The workshop was held with the assistance of the Jackson County Arts Council and was attended by 6 participants. The workshop lasted 2 hours, but the participants said that there was not enough time and that they would have liked to do more.

書道教室
WEEKLY SHODO LESSONS - WEEK 3 - WEEK 6

Shodo lessons are offered every Tuesday and Thursday. Students are very enthusiastic each time. The lessons begin with preparing Sumi ink to calm their minds, and in the third through sixth weeks, the students wrote kanji characters in various calligraphic styles and designed picture kanji characters. Look forward to seeing their amazing work at the International Festival on April 28.

SCC 文化融合フェスティバル
SCC CULTURAL FUSIONS FESTIVAL

On March 30, the JOI program had a booth at the Cultural Fusions Festival held at Southwestern Community College. 3 students from the Japanese Program and I held the #EdamameChamp and over 25 people joined it. We also explained to the participants about the Japanese Program and the JOI Program and had a great time interacting with other booth exhibitors.
