2021-2022 Schedule
Cullowhee, Main Campus (Wednesdays, 10am – 12pm)
Asheville, Biltmore Park Site (Thursdays, 10am – 12pm)

September 15 & 16, 2021
Thomas Rain Crowe – The Baby Beat Generation

September 22 & 23, 2021
Terry Van Duyn – Political issues from the perspective of an elected official, Medicaid

September 29 & 30, 2021
Ted Van Duyn – Bitcoin/cryptocurrency/investment trends

October 6 & 7, 2021
Land of Sky & SW Commission – Broadband issues in the mountains and other regional issues

October 13 & 14, 2021
Jayne Zanglein – Adventures of Girl Explorers

October 20 & 21, 2021
Chris Cooper – Political issues from an academic perspective

October 27 & 28, 2021
Mountain True – Naturalist

November 3 & 4, 2021
Jeffrey Vickery – Religious tolerance or intolerance

November 10 & 11, 2021
Lisa Leatherman – History, present and future of Duke Energy

November 17 & 18, 2021
TBA

December 1 & 2, 2021
TBA

December 9, 2021
Reception
January 19 & 20, 2022
John Lane – Artistic/writer's perspective on environmental issues

January 26 & 27, 2022
Michelle Sorensen – Travel Experiences/Post-COVID travel

February 2 & 3, 2022
Boyd Owle – Governance of the Cherokee nation

February 9 & 10, 2022
Jonathan Marchal – Blue Ridge Naturalist program

February 16 & 17, 2022
Penny Smith – NC/SC in the Revolutionary War

February 23 & 24, 2022
John Boyle – Local journalism

March 2 & 3, 2022
Darin Waters – Racial equality/Black Lives Matter

March 9 & 10, 2022
YiQuing Yang – Immigration, culture, prejudice and aging

March 16 & 17, 2022
Bounty & Soul – Healthy eating and lifestyle

March 23 & 24, 2022
John C. Campbell School – Folk school history and culture

March 30 & 31, 2022
Rob Young – Climate Change

April 6, 2022
Luncheon

Note to the membership:
The above are the topics and speakers selected by the Curriculum Committee. This may change based on speaker availability.