

College of Education & Allied Professions
Western Carolina University
Diversity Committee

Recently Sponsored Speakers and/or Trainings

The CEAP Diversity Committee is committed to assisting the College and Western Carolina in efforts to center inclusive excellence and develop passion, capacity, and knowledge related to equity, diversity, and inclusion, both in generality and aspects related to specific populations and ideas. These efforts directly align with Goal 4.1 of the CEAP Strategic Plan which aims to “integrate content into curricular and co-curricular experiences to promote students' knowledge, skills, and dispositions related to diversity and cultural responsiveness.”

Spring 2021

Groundwater Training
Racial Equity Institute

Spring 2020

Tap, Woof, or Swipe: Geosocial Networking Apps & Practices of Intimacy Among Men Who Have Sex With Men
Corey Johnson, Professor, University of Waterloo

Racial Healing: The Next Step in Racial Justice and Our Collective Liberation
Anneliese Singh, Professor & Associate Dean, University of Georgia

Why We Need Equity Literacy More than We Need Cultural Competence
Paul Gorski, Founder, EdChange and the Equity Literacy Institute

Spring 2019

City By Design: How the Seeds of Racial and Ethnic Division Are Integrated into Neighborhoods, Parks, and Schools
Rasul Mowatt, Associate Professor, Indiana University Bloomington

White Kids: Growing Up with Privilege in a Racially Divided America
Margaret Hagerman, Assistant Professor, Mississippi State University

The Uncertainties of Racism, Classism, and Misogyny: How “What-If” Worlds Can Help Us Find Our Way
Stephanie Jones, Professor, University of Georgia

Spring 2018

One Better World

Vernon Wall, author, lecturer, consultant, founder

Questions?

CEAPDiversity@wcu.edu