"Significant financial interest" refers to anything of monetary value, including a salary, consulting fee, honorarium or other payment for service; equity interests, including stocks, stock options or other ownership interests; and intellectual property rights, including patent rights owned by the investigator or on which a clinical investigator is a named inventor (whether licensed or not), copyrights and royalties. This Policy on Investigators' Conflicts of Interest, however, excludes from consideration the following items:

- (a) salary, or other remuneration (not including royalties) from Western Carolina University;
- (b) income from seminars, lectures, or teaching engagements sponsored by public or non-profit entities
- (c) income from service on advisory committees or review panels sponsored by public or non-profit entities;
- (d) salary, royalties or other payments from a single entity (or group of affiliated entities) that, when aggregated for the investigator and members of his immediate family over the next twelve months, are not expected to exceed $5,000.
