REGISTRATION

Registration will take place between 9am – 5pm in the Foyer of the Arts Building. If you arrive after 5pm and have booked accommodation go to France House and collect your keys you can register for the Conference the following day.

ACCOMMODATION

Keys are issued from the reception in France House (enter East Gate and walk along Westfield Way) which is staffed 24 hours a day. You are advised to collect keys after midday on day of arrival.

TRAVEL

Queen Mary is a couple of minutes' walk from Mile End station (in Zone 2, on the Central, District and Hammersmith & City lines). To get there, turn left out of the tube station and walk underneath the enormous yellow bridge and over the Regent's Canal. Cross the road at the traffic lights, near the bright blue gates, and the Arts building is immediately in front of you.

If arriving at one of the main London stations –

Paddington, St Pancras and Kings Cross, take the Hammersmith & City line eastbound Victoria, take the eastbound District line.

Euston, take the Northern line to Holborn, then change to Central line eastbound.

From Heathrow you can take the Piccadilly line to Holborn and then the Central line eastbound.

Queen Mary is also roughly an eight minute walk from Stepney Green Station (in Zone 2, on the District and Hammersmith & City lines). Turn left out of the tube station and walk straight along Mile End Road until you see the Arts Building on your left hand side.

The 25 and 339 buses also stop a few minutes from the Arts Building on Mile End Road.

RESTAURANTS AND BARS

There are a number of inexpensive restaurants near to the Mile End Campus and in the surrounding area. In particular:
